it's usually said that the whole Western Hemisphere usually says "Estados Unidos" or "United States of America", which is not an official name. Why do so many people in Mexico always refer to it as "Estados Unidos"?

In Spain, people commonly refer to the USA as "Estados Unidos", which translates to "United States". A question of who is paid more in a game is ready to be answered: Cristiano Ronaldo. According to Forbes, Ronaldo was the highest paid player in the world in 2024, with a salary of approximately 127 million euros. However, if you consider the number of titles, a different picture emerges. Roger Federer is considered one of the best players in the world in all 20 Grand Slam tournaments. An athlete who can be considered the highest paid in the world is LeBron James. In addition to his high salary, he also has a contract with Nike worth millions of dollars. We can't forget athletes like Lewis Hamilton and Sebastian Vettel, who also earn very high salaries and bonuses. In the world of sports, the term "handicap" generally refers to an advantage or disadvantage given to a team or player. In this article, we will talk specifically about the handicap in the context of sports betting and how it is applied to one of the most common odds: the handicap +1.

What is a sports handicap? In sports betting, a handicap is a tool used by betting houses to level the playing field between teams or players of unequal strength. This is calculated by assigning a value to a team or player
