One of the most common requirements for trading the stock market as a day trader is the $25,000 rule. You need a minimum of $25,000 equity to day trade a margin account because the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) requires that you have at least $25,000 in equity in your account. This is to protect investors from the high risk of trading on margin. If you don't have enough equity, you could lose more than you invest. So, if you're considering day trading, make sure you have the funds to meet this requirement. For more information, visit 2ndskiesforex : stock-trading-and-investing : why-do-you-need-250...
