To fully exploit the constrained width, avoid loadin g the neighbouring structures and straddle shared utilities running under the si te, the % , house was constructed using a lightweight steel frame on a piled sla b. The steelwork was prefabricated as a series of % , portal frames that were cr aned down the alley and site-welded together. Given that every inch in such a na rrow space % , was valuable we chose to fully weld the connections and express t he frame internally, even utilising the depth of the % , steels to maximise the space.
Alongside the painted steel a simple palette of spruce plywood, douglas fir joists, terrazzo and cork % , flooring enriches the interior. Externally th e timber framed walls are clad in handmade pewter glazed brick slips with a pati na % , that reflects the changing light of the sky. Both the simply landscaped a nd planted rear courtyard and the garden in % , front of the house enhance the f eeling of space in this small dwelling.
This self-build project had a long gestation, fitted % , in around prof essional and family life. The design and construction were developed as time and money allowed so whilst planning % , consent was given in January 2014 and the ground works commenced in the spring of 2024, the building was not % , completed until August 2024. We worked closely with friend and joiner Michael Tye to lead a small team of local % , subcontractors and employed specialist fabricators fo r certain key packages as well as undertaking a fair amount of the work ourselve s.
The % , result is a unique and highly crafted home that is a testament to the commitment, effort and support of many % , people. By replacing a narrow disused alley with this comfortable small home we hope to have enhanced the stre etscape we % , inhabit. As the building completes the terrace, so does the front garden - with the simple bin store, planting, level % , access and bike parking we aimed to keep it open and reinforce the pavement line without making a hard boundary. % , The development highlights the viability, both economically and sp
