The longer the series ran, some of the stories became repetitive, but the writers were able to take bigger risks with some arcs. As a result, the later seasons of the series might not be the greatest, but they certainly have some of the most creative elements of the show.

It's very scary, but not that graphic; occasionally a character will get shot or harmed by another, but most of the violence in The Terror comes from nature: dying from a great fall, for example, or being frozen alive.
