ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed &#1

29334; a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to &#129334; a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games.

In the United States, the FTC had argued &#129334; the acquisition dea l would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscri ptions because Microsoft would have &#129334; an incentive to shut out rivals like Sony Group.

However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has &

#129334; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from &#129334; Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and &#129334; cloud gaming markets.

To address the FTC's concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year &#129334; contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing.

On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
